INTO A LIFE-CHANGING
RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST.

Going for God in 2025

Article by Elder Eugene Cheng,
Shepherding Elder

As we begin the new year, it is timely to reflect on how we can be faithful and fruitful in our faith journey.

Many Gospeliters have either just returned from traveling or are planning their next trip already. You may have noticed how diligent pilots arrive early to check the cockpit gauges and flight systems to ensure the plane is fit for the journey ahead. Similarly, when my family used to travel frequently to Malaysia, my first priority was to send the car to the workshop. The mechanics were informed about the long road trip so they could inspect the vehicle and ensure it was roadworthy. The stakes were high, and early preparation was essential for both pilots and anyone embarking on a long journey.

“Remarkably, Paul penned these words while imprisoned, facing mortal danger daily. Yet, instead of dwelling on his plight, Paul pointed the Philippians to a higher calling: to live out the Gospel worthily in light of Christ’s immense sacrifice.”

As we prepare for 2025 and commit to "Going for God," we might begin by reflecting on what is truly “worthy” and how to live a life that is “worthy.” We can learn from Paul’s exhortation to the Philippians:

"Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ" (Philippians 1:27a).

Paul uses the word “only” to emphasize that the Philippians must prioritize this above all else—their lives must reflect the worthiness of the Gospel. Nothing else should take precedence. Remarkably, Paul penned these words while imprisoned, facing mortal danger daily. Yet, instead of dwelling on his plight, Paul pointed the Philippians to a higher calling: to live out the Gospel worthily in light of Christ's immense sacrifice.

Dear brothers and sisters, let's make 2025 an impactful year for Christ by examining our lives and preparing them for the purpose of the Gospel—just as a responsible pilot ensures their plane is ready for flight. Are there areas in our lives that we need to surrender to God? Have we been distracted by the allure of the world, dulled by selfish pursuits, or derailed by unwise decisions? Perhaps we've been busy in ministry, yet the outcome feels empty. Remember, ministries that cost nothing accomplish nothing. Is the Gospel central to our ministries, or has it been pushed to the margins?

For 2025, let us focus on "going for God" by being:

1. Single-minded (only): Prioritize living for Christ above all else.
2. Self-examining (manner): Assess how our lives align with God's calling.

3. Gospel-driven (worthy of the Gospel): Let the Gospel shape every aspect of our lives and ministries.

Paul reminds us that we are pilgrims here and citizens of heaven. The phrase “manner of life” calls us to live as citizens of Christ’s kingdom, bringing the aroma of Christ into the lives of those around us.

May 2025 be a year where we walk faithfully, prepared and committed to living out the Gospel for God’s glory.
