INTO A LIFE-CHANGING
RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS CHRIST.

Little Hearts, Big Kingdom

Article by Hannah Chee
Shepherd (Children’s Ministry)

“Oh, so cute!” “Ah, they’re too noisy—I can’t hear!” “Aiyo, so naughty; they’ve messed up the place!” “Tsk, they can’t sit still.”

These are the kinds of comments we sometimes hear about children in church. Perhaps one of these responses resonates with you?

Burden or Blessing?

Let’s pause and ask: Are our children a burden or a blessing? Are they distractions—or disciples-in-the-making? How do you view the children in our midst? More importantly, how does Jesus view them?

Jesus' Heart for Children

In Matthew 19:14, Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.” Jesus did not see children as distractions or interruptions to His ministry. He saw them as precious souls who needed to know Him, and He reached out and welcomed them. If the King of kings thought ministry to children was worth His time, then surely it must be worth ours too!

Our Aim at Sonshine Club

“It’s boring.” “I don’t understand what’s going on.” “I just want to have fun.” “I’m only here because my parents brought me.” How do these statements make you feel?

It Takes a Church Family

This is where the church family comes in—to welcome them, engage their hearts, and lead them to Jesus. It takes intentionality, and it takes people. When you step in to serve—whether you are a parent, student, retiree, or even a new believer—you show children that the church is truly here for them. You can help re-write what they see and think:

- “Come and see—God’s Word isn’t boring; it’s life-giving!”
- “Church isn’t a chore; it’s a joy to be part of God’s family!”
- “You are seen, loved, and invited into God’s big story!”
- “The gospel isn’t just for grown-ups—it’s for you, our precious little ones, too!”

A Story of Gospel Care

Last year, a newcomer mum with late-stage cancer visited GLCC, hoping her daughter would find a church family. Mum was the only believer in her household, and she worried no one would reach out to her daughter once she was gone. By God's grace, some of our small-group leaders (SGLs) welcomed and walked alongside her daughter. When mum passed away later that year, these leaders continued to care for her—even through her PSLE this year.

Join the Mission

This is what children's ministry is about. It is not a duty to fill; it is a mission to embrace. Would you prayerfully join us in leading the next generation into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ?
